

The logo features a stylized blue mountain peak on the left. Inside the mountain, there is a white silhouette of a hiker and a dog. A white dotted line representing a trail winds through the mountain. To the right of the mountain, the text "DUNCANNON" is in blue, "APPALACHIAN" is in green, and "TRAIL FESTIVAL" is in blue, all in a bold, sans-serif font.

DUNCANNON APPALACHIAN TRAIL FESTIVAL

Saturday, June 21st, Noon - 4
High Street, Duncannon, PA

Duncannon, one of the few official Appalachian Trail Communities, is eager to share the pride and enthusiasm of being part of a national treasure.

In celebration, the festival will include hikes and outdoor activities in the morning. Then from noon until 4 p.m. there will be entertainment, exhibits, presentations and vendors near the town square on High Street between Cumberland and Ann streets.

ATTRACTIONS

- Admission and all presentations are FREE!
- Shavers Creek Raptor Exhibit with live birds of prey!
- Smokey the Bear will be there to raise fire prevention awareness
- Audubon Birding presentation by the knowledgeable and talented Paul Zeph.
- Photography Presentations by topnotch photographers. Bring your camera and learn from the experts.
- Warrior Hikers - veterans hike the AT to help fellow veterans tell their stories.
- Perry County History presentation by author Dennis J. Hocker
- Live Musical Entertainment throughout the day.
- Food and Arts and Craft Vendors - more than than 40 participating.
- Over $500 of Prizes donated by vendors. One FREE Raffle Ticket for every attendee! (Children must be accompanied by an adult.)
- Hiking and Outdoor Clubs participating with hikes and presentations:
 1. Appalachian Long Distance Hikers Association
 2. Appalachian Trail Conservancy
 3. Audubon Pennsylvania
 4. Duncannon Outdoor Club
 5. Keystone Trails Association
 6. Mountain Club of Maryland
 7. Susquehanna Appalachian Trail Club
 8. Susquehanna Greenway Partnership
 9. Susquehanna Rovers Volksmarch Club
 10. York Hiking Club

PRELIMINARY LIST OF DUNCANNON'S AFTERNOON FESTIVAL ACTIVITIES

For updated activities list, please go to the following web site for latest information: <http://duncannonatc.org/2014-datc-festival/>

Festival Location: High Street between Cumberland and Ann streets

Time of Festival: 12:00 Noon to 4:00 p.m.
(Exception: Hikes begin in morning to allow finish by noon.)

Outdoor Presentation Area: Corner of Cumberland and High streets by Quick Mart

12:00 noon to 12:30 p.m. Warrior Hikers "Walk off the war", to raise awareness of wounded veterans by walking entire Appalachian Trail

12:30 p.m. to 1:45 p.m. Shaver's Creek Birds of Prey, showcasing live raptors to teach natural history and challenges facing eagles, falcons, hawks and owls

2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. Introduction to Backpacking, by veteran backpacker Tom Morley of York Hiking Club

3:15 p.m. to 3:45 p.m. Raffle Prize Drawings, prizes donated by participating vendors

3:45 to 4:00 p.m. Closing Ceremonies

Time to Be Determined PA Audubon Society, birding presentation by Paul Zeph of the Audubon Society

Indoor Presentation Area:
In Fire Station Hall
corner of Cumberland and High streets

12:00 noon to 2:00 p.m. Photography Techniques, professional photographers teach photo techniques

2:00 p.m. to 2:45 p.m. Perry County Heritage Collection Stories, presented by author Dennis J. Hocker

2:45 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Successful Photography Techniques, professional photographers continue instruction

BE SURE TO VISIT THE FESTIVAL WEB SITE FOR CONTINUING INFORMATION!

<http://duncannonatc.org/2014-datc-festival/>

Site includes list of vendors, raffle prizes, directions, parking instructions and other valuable and exciting information on the festival.

JOIN DUNCANNON'S CELEBRATION!

Sponsored by Duncannon Borough and Duncannon Appalachian Trail Community

